

Diana Sejdiu Shala is an Assistant Professor at UBT Higher Education, where she teaches Introduction to Sociology and Educational Psychology. She has more than two decades of experience in educational and academic institutions in Kosovo, as a teacher, teacher mentor and external collaborator of the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology.

She completed her PhD in Organization and Management of Information Processes at the University of Library Studies and Information Technologies in Sofia, Bulgaria, as well as her Master's degree in Sociology. Diana also holds a Bachelor's degree in Preschool Education and in Albanian Language and Literature from the University of Prishtina.

Her field of study includes topics such as: motivation in learning, academic performance, teacher-student relationship, social responsibility, leadership and communication. Among others, Diana is the author of several books, "Beyond the Stars" and "On Motivation in Teaching" and has published scientific articles in international journals and conferences.

Diana's work reflects a long-standing commitment to the field of education and the development of practices to raise the quality of education and teaching in Kosovo.