

Student Admission

Target Groups

➤ New students

The program is offered to students who have completed upper secondary education and passed the State Matura Examination, and who are interested in pursuing university studies in the fields of English language, linguistics, literature, translation, and intercultural communication. The program is also open to student transfers from other domestic or international universities, provided that these institutions are licensed and accredited by the relevant authorities.

➤ Interns and professionals in the fields of language and communication

The program is designed for individuals who are already engaged in fields requiring the professional use of the English language and who seek to enhance their linguistic, academic, and professional competencies.

➤ Professionals from the private and public sectors

The program is offered to professionals working in sectors such as public administration, business, diplomacy, media, education, tourism, and international organizations, where advanced proficiency in English represents significant added professional value.

➤ Individuals interested in international academic and professional development

The program is intended for candidates who aim to pursue advanced studies (Master's and Doctoral degrees) or to build careers in international academic and professional environments.
